7. Comments by Coalition Members Lacey informed the group that Deputy Steve Curtis of Stafford S.O. Was currently working with pastors and faith leaders in the Community, encouraging them to build relationships with each other. As well as encouraging them to participate in and support other community events within the county. Such as National Night out, an event hosted by the Sheriff Office in the Park, etc. Chairman suggests inviting Deputy Curtis to our next meeting, May 23. The invitation will be made by Lacey. Additional Comments from Members of the Coalition centered around their previous concerns, regarding the limited ability that the coalition has. Comments and suggestions about what if anything members of the coalition could do. Comments: Individually speaking with Supervisor again. It was expressed doing so may be seen as if the coalition members are being pushy and our intent may be perceived negatively. It was mentioned, as members, we should be patient. A suggestion was made that as members of the Coalition we should attend Supervisor's Meetings from time to time, to listen and show that we are interested. Chairman, Lacey, and Sherif mentioned they will attend the next Supervisor's meeting on May 3, 2022
